

Employment support

Websites with more information

An Easy Read guide

ndis

ndis.gov.au

What is employment?

Employment means you:

- have a job
- go to work
- get paid.

Everyone has different work goals, including the:

- job they want
- work they want to do
- career they want to have.

Your career is the path you take in the area of work you choose.

During your life, you can change your:

- career
- job.

Websites with more information

There are lots of places where you can find more information about employment.

The Disability Gateway

The Disability Gateway is a website you can use to find:

- services and supports
- information.

You can visit their website.

www.disabilitygateway.gov.au

Or you can call them.

1800 643 787

The National Careers Institute (NCI)

NCI is a website you can use to find information about:

- learning and training
- getting ready to work.

You can also use NCI for support to find a job.

You can visit their website.

www.dese.gov.au/nci

Job Outlook

Job Outlook is a website you can use to:

- find and learn information about jobs
- choose what you want to learn
- plan your pathway to work.

You can visit their website.

www.joboutlook.gov.au

Australian Apprenticeships

Australian Apprenticeships is a website you can use to find information about:

- work experience
- training
- support.

You can visit their website.

www.australianapprenticeships.gov.au

Disability Employment Services

Disability Employment Services (DES) is a government program that helps people with disability find and keep jobs.

You can find out more on the DSS website.

[www.dss.gov.au/our-responsibilities/disability-and-carers/
programmes-services/disability-employment-services](http://www.dss.gov.au/our-responsibilities/disability-and-carers/programmes-services/disability-employment-services)

Everyone Can Work

Everyone Can Work is a website.

It has information about supports for people with disability to find open employment.

Open employment is when anyone can have a job in a workplace, not just people with disability.

You can visit their website.

www.everyonecanwork.org.au

Employment Assistance Fund

Employment Assistance Fund (EAF) is a government program.

It helps pay for the changes and support people need at work.

The money for these changes may be paid to you or directly to your employer.

You can visit the Job Access website.

www.jobaccess.gov.au/employment-assistance-fund-eaf

JobAccess is a website you can use to find information about the types of support you can get.

JobAccess has information for:

- people with disability
- organisations
- providers.

You can visit their website.

www.jobaccess.gov.au/people-with-disability

You can also learn about the stories of other people in the workplace.

www.jobaccess.gov.au/stories

The Information Access Group created this Easy Read document using stock photography and custom images. The images may not be reused without permission. For any enquiries about the images, please visit www.informationaccessgroup.com. Quote job number 4690.

More information

For more information about this guide,
please contact us.

www.ndis.gov.au

1800 800 110

Follow us on Facebook.

www.facebook.com/NDISAus

Follow us on Twitter.

@NDIS

Support to talk to us

You can talk to us online using our webchat feature at the top of our website.

www.ndis.gov.au

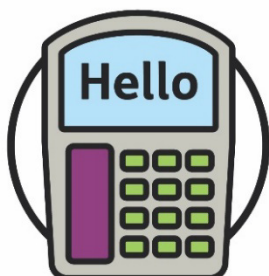

If you speak a language other than English, you can call:

Translating and Interpreting Service (TIS)

131 450

If you have a speech or hearing impairment, you can call:

TTY

1800 555 677

Speak and Listen

1800 555 727

National Relay Service

133 677

www.relayservice.gov.au

ndis.gov.au