

If you're younger than 65 and living in residential aged care, there are some supports we may fund. The aged care system is responsible for providing other supports. Check the list of supports that are not NDIS supports for the aged care system.

We have a guideline for younger people in residential aged care with more information about what we can and can't fund.

You can also check out our webpage on aged care.