

We're updating this guideline with new legislation

Please download the guideline for the latest information, while we update the website over the coming weeks.

Home modifications are changes to your home that help you manage your disability. These changes can be minor or more complex.

They can help you safely access or move around your home.

They can also help make daily tasks easier.

Browse the guideline using the links or download a copy

- Home modifications \(PDF 339KB\)
- Home modifications \(DOCX 116KB\)

What do we mean by home modifications?

What home modifications do we fund?

How do we fund home modifications?

How can you get home modifications in your plan?

How can you use your home modifications funding?

What if you don't agree with our decision?

You might also be interested in:

Assistive technology

Supported independent living

Individualised living options

Specialist disability accommodation

This page current as of 22 April 2025